8:00am – 9:00am Registration and Networking

9:00am – 10:45am Welcome & General Sessions

Leadership: Effectiveness to Greatness - Linda Haynes, Wipfli LLP

We build our legacy every day by our actions, so is your current legacy anywhere near your ideal? This session will outline Stephen Covey's 7 Habits of Highly Effective People® as well as his follow-up: the 8th Habit. You will learn about the most proven techniques that leverage your passions and values as you transition from Effectiveness to Greatness in your personal as well as professional life.

Engaged But Secure: How You, Your Customers and Your Future Customers are Impacted By IT - Sherrie Krowczyk-Mendoza & Corbin DelCarlo, McGladrey

This session will discuss how to keep the next generation both engaged in your institution but secure from an IT standpoint. We will be talking about information security, and how this topic impacts the Bank's strategy, employees, current customers and the bank's overall future. We will discuss how easy it is for your institution to be hacked into, pulling some interesting tidbits from the Target breach.

10:45am – 11:00am Break

11:00am – 12:00pm Roundtables - Facilitator: Sherrie Krowczyk-Mendoza, McGladrey

Discuss what has changed in your market and consumer expectations; policies and practices that are outdated; and where your bank is in regards to social media connection within your community.

12pm - 1pm LUNCH & NETWORKING

1:00pm – 3:00pm General Sessions

Transforming Your Organization Through Ethical Leadership - Denis Collins, Professor at Edgewood College School of Business

To be effective, leaders must be ethical. This interactive session provides real life examples on the importance of ethical leadership, including an ethical leadership self-assessment survey.

The Tests of Leadership™ - Regina Barr, Red Ladder, Inc.

Effective leadership skills can help us in almost every aspect of life ... in both personal and business relationships and in achieving goals. Can you pass the tests of leadership? This program gets leaders to think outside of the box and measure themselves as a leader from the perspective of the follower. Participants will learn the five key areas that will determine their effectiveness as a leader and develop an action plan for ensuring their own ongoing leadership success.
